In order to exercise this shareholder right, ownership of bearer shares in safe deposit may be verified by the presentation of a deposit confirmation in accordance with article 10a of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act; the confirmation must not be more than seven days old at the time it is presented to the company. As regards other requirements on deposit confirmations, please refer to the remarks on eligibility to participate. Registered shares must be entered in the stock register; no further verification of ownership by the shareholder is necessary.

By request, and where necessary to facilitate proper evaluation of an item on the agenda, shareholders are entitled to provide information on company matters during the Ordinary General Meeting.

More information on the rights of shareholders (particularly in relation to articles 109, 110 and 118 of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act) is currently available on the company's Internet page at http://www.caimmoag.com/en/investor_relations/ordinary_shareholders_meeting/.

Verification date and participation in the Ordinary General Meeting

Entitlement to attend the Ordinary General Meeting and exercise the right to vote and other shareholder rights that may be asserted at the Meeting is determined by share ownership at the end of the 10th day prior to the Ordinary General Meeting (i.e. midnight Vienna local time on 30 April 2011, the verification date).

Ownership of bearer shares in safe deposit as of the verification date may be verified by the presentation of a deposit confirmation in accordance with article 10a of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act; the confirmation must be received by the company no later than three working days prior to the Ordinary

General Meeting (i.e. 5 May 2011 at the latest) using only the contact details below:

Deposit confirmations may not be transferred by SWIFT (article 262 subsection 20 of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act).

Deposit confirmation according to article 10a of the Austrian Stock Corporation Act

Deposits must be confirmed by a custodian bank based in a member state of the European Economic Area or a full member state of the OECD. Confirmations must contain the following information:

- Details on the issuer: name/company and address, or a conventional code used in bank transactions (SWIFT code).
- Details on the shareholder: name/company, address, date of birth (for natural persons), register and register number (if applicable, for legal entities).
- Details on the shares: number of shares held by the shareholder (in the case of par value shares) as well as the par value and, where there is more than one share class, a description of the class or international securities identification number.
- Securities account number or other designation.
- Time at which the confirmation of deposit applies.

As verification of share ownership for the purpose of participation in the Ordinary General Meeting, deposit confirmations must apply to the verification date stated above (i.e. midnight Vienna local time on 30 April 2011).

Deposit confirmations may be composed in German or English.

Registered shares

With regard to registered shares, only shareholders who submit their enrolment to the company in text format using the contact details below no later than three working days prior to the Meeting (i.e. 5 May 2011 at the latest) will be eligible to attend the Ordinary General Meeting.

Enrolments will be accepted in German and English.

Shares registered to take part in the Ordinary General Meeting or by submitting a confirmation of deposit will not be blocked; shareholders are entitled to dispose freely of their shares after registering or submitting a deposit confirmation.

Representation by an authorised agent

Shareholders who are eligible to attend the Ordinary General Meeting are entitled to appoint a representative to take part in the Meeting on their behalf. This agent has the same rights as the shareholder they are representing.

Authorisation must be granted to a specified person (natural person or legal entity) in text format; more than one person or entity may be nominated.

Power of representation must be confirmed to the company using only the following contact details:

By fax: +43 (0)1 8900 500 82

By email: anmeldung.caimmoag@hauptversammlung.at, attaching the demand to the email in text format (e.g. as a TIF, PDF file).

In person: When registering for the Ordinary General Meeting at the venue.

An authorisation form will be sent out on request; the form is also available to download from the company's Internet site at http://www.caimmoag.com/en/investor_relations/ordinary_shareholders_meeting/.

Unless the authorisation is made in person (when registering on the day of Ordinary General Meeting), the company must be in receipt of the authorisation form no later than 4pm Vienna local time on 9 May 2011.

Where a shareholder authorises their custodian bank to represent them, it is sufficient for the bank to issue a statement confirming the granting of authorisation along with the confirmation of deposit. The procedure for submitting this statement corresponds accordingly to the procedure for submitting deposit confirmations.

As a special service to shareholders, independent representatives are available from the IVA Austrian investors' association (IVA, Feldmühlgasse 22, 1130 Vienna) as proxies who will exercise voting rights at the Ordinary General Meeting; a special authorisation form may be downloaded from the company's Internet site at www.caimmoag.com/investor_relations/hauptversammlung/. Alternatively, shareholders may call Dr. Michael Knap of the IVA directly on +43 (0)1 8763 3430, send a fax to +43 (0)1 876 334 349 or email michael.knap@iva.or.at.

The regulations on granting power of representation outlined above apply accordingly to the revocation of the power of representation.

Total number of shares and voting rights

At the time of convening the Ordinary General Meeting, the company's capital stock stands at EUR 638,713,556.20, divided into 87,856,060 no-par value shares (87,856,056 bearer shares and four registered shares). Each share entitles the holder to one vote; the total number of voting rights is 87,856,060.

When entering the Ordinary General Meeting, shareholders and representatives may be asked to show a generally accepted photo ID, such as a passport or driving licence. To ensure the entry checks proceed smoothly, shareholders are requested to arrive at the venue for the Ordinary General Meeting in good time. Doors open for the collection of voting cards at 4pm.
